

History & Governance of NCHN

The National Cooperative of Health Networks Association (NCHN) is a not-for-profit national membership organization, which is governed by its members through an elected Board of Directors.

Founded in the late 1980s, NCHN was incorporated in 1995. In the beginning, NCHN was comprised of 5-7 members representing newly formed networks.

Today the membership is approximately 60 network organizations across the nation and growing. NCHN is a dynamic, progressive, and nationally recognized professional organization that is relevant for health networks regardless of their stage of development.

Collaboration, Networking, Leadership Development, and Education

Application Process

To be eligible for voting membership, a health network must be comprised of at least three (3) independently owned organizations with an interest in cooperative ventures and provide services to their healthcare provider members. Network organizations may be admitted as a voting member of NCHN by:

1. completing the on-line application for Network Membership
2. receiving membership acceptance to Voting Membership by action of the board of directors at the board's sole discretion; and
3. submitting payment of such membership dues as prescribed below.

Membership applications are accepted at any time and dues are prorated. NCHN annual dues are based on an organization's operating budget. Current dues are as follows:

- Less than $250,000: $500
- $250,000 - $500,000: $750
- Over $500,000: $1,000

Online application forms are located at www.nchn.org
